A Kind-hearted Couple

By Cindy Wong

A kind-hearted couple, Mr and Mrs Chan, adopted an 8-year-old boy, John, who is an orphan.

John became an orphan because his mother died right after he was born. John's father left him in the hospital. The hospital sent John to the Social Welfare Department. Luckily, a very kind-hearted couple, Mr and Mrs Chan adopted the little boy when he was 8 years old. They gave him the name John.

'When we first saw John, we wanted him to be our son immediately,' said Mr and Mrs Chan. Their eldest daughter, Susan, also shared the same feeling. 'When I first saw John, I knew I would love to have him as my brother!'

However, why did the Chan family still adopt John even though they already have a child?

'The answer is very simple. We would like to share our love with people in need and we would like Susan to learn how to love others as we do,' said Mr and Mrs Chan. The Chan family will share more love by adopting two more children, the 5-year-old Jenny and the 8-month-old Peter next month.

'We would like our children to grow up happily and healthily. That would be the best present for us,' said Mr Chan and Mrs Chan.

1. Read paragraph 2. What is an 'orphan'?
  - A. A child with no sisters or brothers
  - B. A child with no friends
  - C. A child with no parents
  - D. A child with no cousins
2. Which of the following is NOT true?
  - A. Mr and Mrs Chan brought John home when he was 8 years old.
  - B. The hospital sent John to Mr and Mrs Chan after his dad left.
  - C. John was sent to the Social Welfare Department shortly after he was born.
  - D. The Chan family will adopt more children.

3. Why did the Chan family adopt John?
- A. Susan wanted a brother.
  - B. They were rich.
  - C. They wanted to share their love with others.
  - D. John's father asked them to adopt John.
4. Read paragraph 3: 'When I first saw John, I would love to have him as my brother!' What does 'my' refer to?
- A. John's
  - B. Mr Chan's
  - C. Mrs Chan's
  - D. Susan's
5. Read the last two paragraphs. What do Mr and Mrs Chan want their children to do?
- A. Often give presents to them
  - B. Be happy and healthy
  - C. Eat more junk food
  - D. Only care about themselves
6. What is the main idea of the news article?
- A. To tell children to love their parents
  - B. To encourage people to share their love with people in need
  - C. To ask people to donate money
  - D. To tell students to love their friends
7. Jason is writing a note to his friend. Complete the note by filling in the blank with only ONE word from the text. Make sure your answers are grammatically correct.

Local News	Hong Kong Morning Post	2nd January 2020
By Amy Lee
Last night, a burglar broke into an electronic shop in Causeway Bay. The owner of the shop, a sixty-nine-year-old man, Mr Fan, was doing some paperwork when the burglar broke a window at the back of the shop using a metal bar. ‘I count my products once a month,’ explained Mr Fan. ‘Although it’s quite boring, I’m glad that I decided to do it last night!’ First, Mr Fan heard a loud noise from the back window. Then he saw a tall and thin man dressed in all black climbing through the window. He quickly dialled ‘999’ on his mobile phone. ‘When I was talking to the police on the phone, the burglar saw me and ran away nervously. Then, I ran after him quickly,’ Mr Fan said. The burglar was trying to escape through the window when Mr Fan grabbed his ankles. Mr Fan knew the police were coming so he held him tightly. Finally, the burglar banged his own head on the wall by accident and fainted. ‘He really hurt himself,’ said Mr Fan. ‘A big lump was growing on his head under his mask. I hurt myself too, but luckily it wasn’t serious. I just scraped my elbow on the edge of the window.’ When the police arrived, Mr Fan was still holding onto the burglar’s ankles. ‘I couldn’t believe my eyes!’ said Officer Wu. She said that Mr Fan was very brave to stop the burglar from escaping. However, she said that he was also very lucky not to be hurt more seriously. ‘It’s always better to call the police and let us deal with the criminals,’ she said.

Alice is reading an article about Hong Kong-style French toast. Read it carefully, choose the best answers for Questions 1-6.

Hong Kong-style French Toast

By Dennis Luk

5 Everybody loves Hong Kong-style French toast. It is made with white bread, peanut butter and eggs. For decades, it has been one of the most popular local foods in Hong Kong. We can find this delicious treat easily at Hong Kong Cha Chaan Tengs.

What is so special about Hong Kong-style French toast? While the original Western French toast is made with slices of white bread and eggs, Hong Kong-style one is made with peanut butter too. It is put in between slices of white bread and everything is deep-fried all together. This gives Hong Kong-style French toast a rich taste.

10 How to make Hong Kong-style French toast? First you need to get two slices of white bread and spread some peanut butter onto each of them. Then add some eggs, milk and sugar into a bowl and mix them well. Next put the bread into the mixture, take it out and deep-fry it in hot oil. Finally, serve it with butter and syrup.

15 Making Hong Kong-style French toast takes only a few steps, but it is not easy to make good one. The amount of time on deep-frying is one of the keys. If the amount of time is right, the food should be crispy outside and soft inside. It should have a golden brown colour too.

20 Between Hong Kong-style French toast and Western French toast, I will always go for Hong Kong-style one. If you ever visit Hong Kong, remember to try it at a Hong Kong Cha Chaan Teng. Enjoy it with lemon tea too. The sour taste of it matches the sweet toast perfectly!
